Donation Soirée in Puslinch
June 10th 1864.

The "Donation Soirée" given to Mr. P. McLaren, teacher in School Section No. 10, Puslinch, came off in Mr. Campbell's barn on Thursday, the 2nd instant. The children attending Mr. McLaren's school were all present along with many of their parents and others interested in the cause of education in the section. Among the company, we also noticed the trustees, Messrs. D. McFarlane, D. Campbell, and Robert Beattie. A temporary platform had been erected at one side of the barn, where the chairman, Mr. D. McFarlane, the speakers, and the choir were seated.

An excellent tea, with plenty of cakes and other nice things, was served by the young ladies and gentlemen who were instrumental in getting up the soirée. This part of the business having been satisfactorily performed, the choir favoured the company with one of their best pieces, which was sung in a most creditable and efficient manner. During the evening, the choir sang several other pieces between the speeches and were repeatedly and deservedly applauded.

Messrs. Alexander Campbell, teacher, David Watt, and J. Innes then addressed the company on subjects suitable to the occasion. One and all congratulated Mr. McLaren on this manifestation of his success as a teacher in the school, and paid him a high compliment, bearing testimony to his efficiency and assiduity in the discharge of his onerous and responsible duties. That these had been duly appreciated was evident from the demonstration that evening, and they expressed the hope that he would be long spared to carry on the good work, and aid in advancing the material and intellectual interests of the section.

Mr. McLaren made an appropriate and feeling speech. He thanked the young people for getting up the soirée, and their elders for heartily assisting them, and hoped that in the future his labours would be more beneficial than in the past. After a vote of thanks to the chairman, the company broke up shortly after sundown, all feeling highly gratified with their pleasant meeting. We understand that the committee intends to purchase a number of books with the proceeds of the soirée, which they will present to Mr. McLaren.

Corwhin News

September 27th 1866.

A correspondent from Nassagaweya sends us an account of a human skeleton that was found on Friday last by some labourers in digging a cellar for Mr. Lamb, of Puslinch, near the Nassagaweya Townline. It was found about two feet underground, all huddled together. There were no signs of any covering to it of wood or any other material about it, and the only things found were twenty bone pins, sharp at both ends and about an inch in length. It was in a good state of preservation, particularly the bones of the cranium and upper extremities. All the teeth were present and sound, although they were very much worn. The cranium is very large in proportion to the other bones; it is a round, well-developed head and phrenologists would say that its possessor must have had a good brain and one of more than ordinary capacity. It is evidently a white man's skeleton, of about fifty years old. It has laid, no doubt, nearly half a century in its rough tomb. How it came there? Who was it? and other questions, will never be answered. Probably, it has been put there by Indians, who have pinned bark or other material around him and thrown him in, or perhaps, he might have died there and been covered by the earth in some means or other.

Serious Accident in Puslinch

December 20th 1866.

We regret to learn that Mr. Alex Campbell Sr., residing on the 10th Concession, Puslinch, met with a serious accident last Friday. He was taking a load of straw to a neighbour's farm, from his own place, and not having the straw properly bound down to the rack, it began to slip off as he was going down the hill. He fell off the wagon with it, on to one of the horses, and in trying to get down, he was caught by the wheel or rack, and fell to the ground, when both wheels went over him. The horses started off down the road, scattering the straw all along. Fortunately, a neighbour, some distance ahead, saw them, ran to the road and stopped them before any damage was done to either horses or wagon. On going up to Mr. Campbell, it was found that one of his legs was broken in two places, at the ankle and at the thigh, close to the pelvis joint. Dr. Howitt was at once sent for and did all that he could for the sufferer. He regards Mr. Campbell's injuries as of a serious character, but he has good hope of his recovery.

July 7th 1869.

The examination of Mr. P. McLaren's school, in section No. 10 of Puslinch, took place on Friday in the presence of the trustees, a number of the parents, and others. The examination was most satisfactory, and gave abundant proofs of the ability, perseverance, and assiduity of the teacher.

At the close, the company adjourned to a grove on Mr. John Laing's farm, where a very pleasant picnic was held, and was attended by quite a number of people besides the pupils. After refreshments, various amusements of a pleasant character were indulged in; speeches were made by Messrs. Wm. Black, A. Laing, and Mr. Robbie; a recitation was well given by Mr. Donald McKenzie, and there was some pleasant singing by the ladies. The picnic was very successful and passed off to the entire satisfaction of all.

Runaway

August 13th 1873.

We regret to hear that considerable damage was done by a runaway that occurred at the residence of Mr. Alexander Campbell, Puslinch Gore, this Wednesday morning.

Mr. Campbell had just hitched up his team and loaded his wagon to start for Guelph, the horses being tied at the door. Mrs. Campbell came to the door to shake a quilt and this appeared to have frightened the horses, who made a start and broke the tongue of the wagon, then with another bound broke their fastening and started off down the lane at a tearing pace, with the tongue hanging down and the wagon behind them. Before going far, the wagon struck a stone and upset, liberating the horses, who galloped on until they were brought up by a gate, which they smashed. One of the horses was badly cut and the wagon will need extensive repairs.

Campbell – Campbell – At the residence of the bride's brother, on Thursday March 1st, by Reverend Alexander McKay, D.D., Mr. Charles Campbell, of the Township of Ekfrid, to Miss Ann Campbell, Puslinch, daughter of the late Dugald Campbell.

Presentation in Puslinch
Tuesday January 2nd 1884.

A very sociable gathering took place in the schoolhouse in section No. 10, Puslinch, Monday evening, the 24th instant, when the parents and the pupils of the section met for the purpose of showing their appreciation of Mr. James Duncan, who has taught very successfully in the section during the last four years.

Mr. Peter McLaren was called to the chair, and after making a few appropriate remarks, called upon Mr. Andrew McRobbie Jr. to read the following address:

Dear Teacher,

We, the parents and pupils of S.S. No. 10, Puslinch, take the liberty of meeting you tonight to express our appreciation of your past services as a teacher. The interest that you have at all times taken in educational matters, your kindness to the pupils entrusted to your charge, your strict attention to duty, and your interest in the future welfare of the pupils are worthy of praise. Your promptness in the discharge of your duties and your exemplary conduct merit esteem. These and other good qualities prompt us to ask your acceptance of this chain, locket and inkstand for the services that you have rendered to the people in this section. Hoping that these gifts may remind you of your residence among us, and the pleasant as well as profitable days we have spent together during the past four years. Our earnest desire is that you and the pupils entrusted to your charge, and all of us, may be pupils of our great Teacher, Our Father in Heaven.

Signed,
W. Kerr, John Hardie, P. McLaren, & C. Cameron

During the reading of the address, Mr. W. Kerr Jr. and Malcolm Gilchrist presented Mr. Duncan with a beautiful gold chain, lockset, and inkstand, after which Mr. Duncan made the following reply.

Words fail to give expression to the feelings that are rising in my breast at this presentation. It is true I am not taken unaware, though I am surprised. I am surprised that you have made me the recipient of such valuable gifts and of such a flattering address. Valuable as the gifts are, and I value them highly, let me tell you that the kind words which your address contains and the motives that prompted the giving, I value in a far higher sense. As I wander back in imagination over the four years now drawing to a close, and as scene after scene passes in rapid succession through my mind, I am led to say that I have made many mistakes. Perhaps, I have not been so watchful at all times as I might have been, perhaps too, not so zealous in the discharge of my duty as I should have been, but friends, by your kind act tonight, I am assured that whatever my shortcomings, I have your forgiveness. As my mind reverts once more to the 2nd of January 1880, the day on which I first entered this house, and as I note the changes that have taken place from the above date to the 21st of December 1883, I have to say that this section should be truly thankful to God. It is true that death has entered some houses and taken near and dear ones. In one it has taken a mother and in another a father, but the children have been spared, and these very occasions have been the means of drawing my heart closer to the children of this section. I can sympathize with such for I have lost near and dear ones, and my sympathies flow out to all such, whether high or low, rich or poor. I have endeavoured to treat you all alike and to know no difference and if I have allowed any imprudent or unbecoming word at any time to pass my lips, I hope that it may be forgiven and forgotten, and as I go from this house tonight, with the past unfolded to my gaze, and the future dark, I go praying that God may bless you one and all. Let me again thank you for your valuable presents, which are very significant to me. The chain attached to that which shows me the time of day shall be a reminder of the pleasant time that I spent at S.S. No. 10, Puslinch.

The remainder of the time was spent in appropriate addresses from W. Kerr and John Laing, who each expressed deep regret at Mr. Duncan's departure. Mr. D. McKenzie sang "The Maple Leaf Forever", after which, all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne".

The goods were purchased from Mr. Pringle and gave excellent satisfaction, Dec. 26th 1883.

hundred people were present. After refreshments were served, the audience was treated to a number of selections of music by the choir and to interesting and instructive addresses by Reverend Richard Coe Hender, of Hespeler Circuit, Dr. Alexander McKay, of Duff's Church, and Messrs. D. Barbaree, McKenzie, and P. McLaren, which were greatly appreciated and listened to with much interest. A number of games, such as baseball, swinging, table and lawn croquet, et cetera, were indulged in, much to the pleasure of the younger class. One of the chief attractions was a match between the Darbyville Baseball Club and the Corwhins resulting in the defeat of the former by a score of 7 to 20. Altogether, the occasion was one of great interest to all.

April 23rd 1891.

The Reverend Messrs. Hough and Caldwell, pastors of the Methodist Church on the Nassagaweya Circuit, have been engaged since the middle of January last, until a few days since, in holding revival services on their circuit. Meetings have been held at Corwhin, Moffat, Aberfoyle and Ebenezer Churches. The meetings were, on the whole, well attended, especially at Corwhin and Ebenezer, and the interest increased all the way through. About 50 united with the Methodist Church, on trial, on this circuit and some few will unite with other churches. The meetings also resulted in the quickening and increased spirituality of many who were already members of the church and, in fact, the whole circuit has been more or less benefited by the meetings, which had to be closed on account of the breaking up of the roads and the coming along of the spring work.

The last quarterly meeting for the year was held at the Ebenezer Methodist Church on Sabbath morning last and the congregation was very large. The Quarterly Board of the Circuit met at the Ebenezer Church on the following Monday, at 2 p.m., when most encouraging reports were given of the material, spiritual, and financial progress of the circuit. Reverend Mr. Hart was present, with a proposal from the Rockwood Quarterly Board, to re-arrange the two circuits, and after a careful review and candid and kindly discussion of the whole question, it was decided that we accept the offer of Rockwood Circuit to give us the Eden Mills appointment and recommend the formation of a Nassagaweya circuit, composed of Ebenezer, Eden Mills, and Corwhin, and another circuit, for an ordained young man, to consist of Campbellville, Bethany, and Aberfoyle. The motion was carried by a vote of 21 to 5. This arrangement will be subject to the approval of the Guelph District meeting, and afterwards, of the Stationing Committee, but there is every likelihood that it will be carried out.

Married at Portage La Prairie March 4th 1893.

The Portage La Prairie Review, of the 25th, ultima, has the following notice of the marriage of Miss Maggie Campbell, a former resident of this section: --- The marriage of Miss Maggie Campbell and Mr. F. J. Hogg, of Winnipeg, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. R. P. Campbell, on Wednesday. Only a few of the bride's most intimate friends were present and the matrimonial knot was tied by Reverend A. W. Ross. The bride was dressed in an exceedingly becoming costume of electric blue satin and illusion and carried a beautiful bouquet of white flowers, the gift of the bridegroom. She was attended by Miss Ferrier, who performed the duties of bridesmaid in charming style and looked her best in a pretty Nile green costume with a bouquet of pink roses. The bridegroom stood the ordeal well and was supported by Mr. Wm. Gray, of Winnipeg, a contractor, who, it is rumoured, is seriously contemplating making a similar "contract" himself.

After the ceremony, the company sat down to a sumptuous repast, then under a fusillade of rice and good wishes, left by the afternoon train for their new home in Winnipeg.

Presentations in Puslinch March 28th 1894.

On Thursday evening, March 22nd, the members of No. 10 Sabbath School assembled at the residence of their Superintendent and Bible Class teacher, Mr. John A. Cockburn, to convey to him in a tangible form their appreciation of the services he has so willingly provided for some years past, in spite of bad roads and very unfavourable weather. Some forty-five were present, which shows the success of the school and the esteem in which Mr. Cockburn is held.

When all had arrived, Mr. and Mrs. Cockburn were summoned and Miss Jennie Hume explained the object of the gathering by reading the following address, in due course of which Mr. Edward Kingsbury and Mr. Neil Black made the presentations:

To Mr. John A. Cockburn, Superintendent of the Sabbath School of School Section No. 10:

We, your friends and members of your Bible Class, have met here tonight to convey to you a slight recognition of the esteem in which you are held. Although cognizant of the fact that any words of ours are inadequate to express the idea we wish to impart, still we feel we could not let this opportunity pass without at least attempting to voice the feelings that have been created by your services and your exemplary attitude towards the Sabbath School for several years past. This work has involved not a little labour and sacrifice on your part, and while we fully recognize that your efforts have been actuated by love to Christ and not in the hope of earthly reward, yet it is our desire tonight to show in some measure that your services have been much appreciated.

We, therefore ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Cockburn, to accept these chairs as a slight recognition of the esteem in which those services are held by us. Our earnest prayer is that the knowledge that your services have been appreciated and instrumental for good, will still farther infuse you to grater zeal and activity in carrying on the work of The Master. And when earthly church service is no longer required of you, we trust that The Master, Himself, will call you to a higher and more glorious service in His Church above.

Signed on behalf of friends and the Bible Class, Wm. Ross, Neil Black, Ed. Kingsbury, Jennie Hume, Mary Murray, and Jennie Gilchrist.

In brief, yet well chosen words, Mr. Cockburn replied, thanking them for the beautiful and costly presents, on his own and Mrs. Cockburn's behalf. He said that he was so completely surprised that he scarcely knew how to reply; that he had not laboured in the Bible Class and Sunday School with any hope of earthly reward, but from love to souls and The Master's cause; that the time spent in preparatory study of the lesson had been pleasant and profitable to himself and he hoped of benefit to his class. He said that the kindness and good attention always shown him by the members of the Sunday School had well repaid him for the work that he had done, and he hoped that these kindly feelings might always exist. In conclusion, he again thanked them, saying that he trusted that this token of their esteem might inspire him to still greater zeal and earnestness.

After this, Miss Maggie Murray, who has been organist and teacher in the same Sunday School for some time and who is about to remove to Rochester to enter upon training as a nurse, was greatly surprised by being requested to come forward, when Mr. Robert McFarlane read to her the following address:

To Miss Maggie Murray:

It is with feelings of regret that we, the young people of the neighbourhood, learn that you are about to leave us for another field of usefulness, and we take this opportunity of showing our esteem and gratitude for the kindly manner in which you have laboured among us.

As Organist and also as Sabbath School teacher, you have contributed in no small degree to the success of our Sabbath School. We are sorry for ourselves that you have deemed it wise to remove from our midst, but we know that we are joined by every member of the entire community in wishing you every success in your new work.

And now, ere we part, we would ask you to accept this ring and manicure case as a slight token of our reward for you, and we trust that they may prove silent reminders of the pleasant hours spent in No. 10.

Signed on behalf of the young people,
C. McLaren, R. J. McFarlane, Lizzie Kerr, and Christina McKenzie.

The presentations were made by Miss Christina McKenzie.

Miss Murray's brother, Mr. Robert Murray, made an appropriate reply on her behalf, thanking the donors for their beautiful gift.

Mr. Cockburn, on request, then spoke again for a few minutes, referring to Miss Murray's departure. He said that he regretted losing her services in the Sabbath School, but was pleased to know that she had a wider sphere of usefulness opened to her. He hoped that all present would have the pleasure of meeting again on earth, but if not, that there would be a glorious reunion in the Father's Home above.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in various games and amusements, interrupted only by all being invited to partake of the bountiful repast, provide for the occasion by the ladies. Before leaving, a few selections of music were given, ending by all singing, "God be with you until we meet again". Then all departed, feeling that they had spent a very enjoyable evening.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Kitching, Corwhin, being the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Jane, to Reverend Henry Caldwell, S.T. I. The near relatives and friends of the contracting parties assembled to witness the happy event, which took place at 3:30 o' clock. At the proper time, the guests took their places in the parlour, and shortly the interested parties arrived on the scene. The bride was given away by her father. The bridesmaid was Miss Clara Adamson, cousin of the bride, while the groom was supported by Reverend J. W. Kitching, brother of the bride. Miss Lena Moffat, niece of the bride, was maid of honour. The bride looked charming and was gowned in an appropriate suit of brown. The ceremony was performed by Reverend John Kennedy, B.D., and assisted by reverend Thos. Amy, of the Nassagaweya Circuit. The bride and bridesmaid both held beautiful bouquets of natural flowers. After the ceremony, the company was ushered into the dining room where a very tempting repast awaited them. The presents were of a very useful and costly nature. The happy couple left by the evening train for a trip north, amid showers of rice, old slippers, and good wishes. After the honeymoon, the happy pair will settle in the Methodist parsonage on Rer(?) Circuit, where the Reverend gentleman is stationed at present.

The fine showers that we have had the last few days were very much needed here. The pastures were getting quite dried up, but the rain will revive them for a while again, as well as turnips, corn, et cetera. Water is very scarce, many wells having given out, and quite a number have to drive their cattle some distance to water.

Threshing will soon be finished; we have five steam machines in the neighbourhood, all anxious for work. They are all good threshers, and as competition is the life of trade, some big work has been done. On the farm of Mr. Charles Laing, Duncan Gillies threshed eleven hundred bushels of peas and oats in five hours, without any extra push. Duncan does not go by spurts but is steady all the time and is never far behind in the end.

The spring crops are yielding better than was expected; the straw, of course, will be scarce but the grain is turning out well for the amount of straw, which will bring it up very near average.

The road leading past here from Nassagaweya was generally crowded in former years on a Puslinch show morning but this year not a hoof was to be seen. We learn that they were not permitted to exhibit this year. The reason is not very well known, but it is surmised that they have been taking home too many prizes with them. If that is so, they have taken an effectual way to stop them, but it seems like a backward step in this advancing age. We are sure that the feeling in the township at large would favour more social intercourse with our neighbours.

The Corwhin Ploughing Association has decided to open their second annual ploughing match to the townships of Puslinch and Nassagaweya. It will probably be held about the first of November. The Hills Baseball Club held its annual oyster supper at the residence of Mr. Hector Gilchrist on Friday evening. Shortly before seven o' clock, the invited guests came filing in, all in the best of good humour, until there were about forty-five chatting pleasantly in groups about the house. After everybody had exchanged greetings with everybody else, the gentlemen took their partners upstairs, where a very superior spread was laid upon the table. Oysters hot and oysters cold, according to the many different tastes, were freely dealt out, and along with the other good things, were evidently relished. After all were satisfied, the company again repaired downstairs, where several attractive games, besides music, were soon started in the parlour and hall, while the strains of two violins, played in concert, by Messrs. R. Dart and P. Grieve, soon drew a goodly number of couples into the dining room, which had been specially prepared for those who wished to engage in dancing, and that good old pastime of our Scottish forefathers was very creditably performed by their descendants, the young people of the Hills.

About twelve o' clock, refreshments were again provided, oysters and all, soon after which the company began to disperse to their homes, everyone, we believe, having thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and who will, for a long time, preserve a warm place in their heart for the boys of the Scottish Hills Baseball Club.

A great many are suffering from a severe cold at present. Mr. George Black, who has been ill with inflammation of the lungs, is now slowly recovering and we hope soon to see his genial face among his old associates.

Reverend Mr. Haugh, of Guelph, led the anniversary service in the Methodist Church here, on Sunday evening. A very large congregation came and heard an excellent sermon.

The annual tea meeting of the Methodist Sunday School here was held in the church on Monday night. The weather, sleighing, et cetera were all that could be wished for, and people took advantage of the same, as the church was packed to the doors, there being 250 present. A liberal lunch was first given to each one by the appointed waitresses and their leap year partners, which was no easy task on account of the crowded state of the church. The Chairman and Pastor, the Reverend Mr. Amy, then gave the meeting into the hands of the Superintendent, Mr. D. Barbaree, while the scholars delivered their speeches, recitations, and dialogues, which were mostly of a high moral standard. Short, pithy addresses were afterwards delivered by Messrs. J. Marshall, T. Moore, J. A. Cockburn. The Acton Methodist Choir interspersed the meeting with suitable and well rendered selections, which were much appreciated.

This morning, when Mr. Jas. E. Laing went to the stable to feed the stock, he found that during the night some person or persons had taken horse, harness, and cutter and gone for a drive, returning the same before daylight. Corwhin Tea Meeting January 29th 1896.

The Methodists of Corwhin held their annual tea meeting in their church on Monday evening, January 27th, and it was a decided success. The night was beautiful and clear, the sleighing was all that could be desired, and the glittering ice-covered snow shone like crystal in the moonlight. The church was crowded to the doors by a well-behaved and appreciative audience. The Acton choir supplied the music and to say it was superb was to draw it mild. The children of the school gave a number of recitations and the manner in which they acquitted themselves reflected a great credit on their instructor, Mr. Barbaree. If all self-educated men improved their talents to the extent that Mr. Barbaree does, and impart it, in a similar manner, to those around them, it would be a good thing. Four young ladies gave a dialogue entitled "A Charity Girl", which was well acted. Mr. Amy Barbaree gave a recitation, "Isle of the Scots", in such a manner that left no doubts in the minds of his hearers that, with practice, he will make a speaker of note. Master Wm. Kitching gave a selection on the mouth organ, Miss Emily accompanying him on the organ. Mr. Marshall, Superintendent of Ebenezer Sabbath School, gave an excellent discourse on "Forward". Mr. John A. Cockburn, Superintendent of the Sabbath School in No. 10, gave a good lecture on "Life". He insisted that every man, woman, boy, and girl should have an occupation and pursue it with energy. Mr. Moore, of Nassagaweya, and Mr. Moore, of Acton, gave stirring addresses on Sabbath School work and urged their hearers to study the Bible, for, in it, they should find a mine of wealth. Reverend Mr. Amy was Chairman and filled the chair with good tact and ready wit. Reverend Mr. Hough, of Guelph, thought the hour was too late for him to give a speech, so he said only a few words. The audience was supplied with a bountiful repast, which enabled them to sit patiently till eleven o' clock, before the meeting closed. There were about 300 present and $53 was taken in at the door. The company dispersed, highly pleased with the night's entertainment, and wishing many more returns of the anniversary.

McCrae were present, and all delivered addresses except Mr. Little who was looking after the pastor. A quartet from Knox Church choir, consisting of Misses Lowes and Knowles, and Messrs. Mr. Glassford, pastor of Chalmers Church, Guelph, was also present and delivered an interesting and instructive address on Sunday School teachers and their work. Messrs. P. McLaren, W. Stratton, H. Weatherston, D. Barbaree, and Wm. McCrae, also gave short, pithy addresses bearing principally on Sabbath School work. Ethel and Lottie Ross each sang a solo, which was much appreciated. Mr. H. R. Parker, teacher, gave an excellent exhibition of club swinging to the accompaniment of an auto-harp, played by Mr. P. Grieve, and two violins, played by Messrs. D. McKenzie and W. Grieve. Miss C. Accidentally Shot

October 16th 1896.

Wm. Dempsey, Jas. Swindlehurst, and Chas. Johnson, a young man of 17 years of age, son of Mrs. Johnson, corner Queen and Elizabeth Streets, were out shooting in Fleming's bush, on this side of Corwhin, on Wednesday. The dogs started a hare and the hunters followed up. Johnson, after following a considerable distance, thought that it would be more satisfactory to eat his lunch and leave the honour of the sport to his companions. So he sat down at the side of a tree and commenced to satisfy the inner man. Unfortunately, the hare came running along nearby where Johnson was sitting, and Swindlehurst, who was not far away, fired, not knowing the close proximity of Johnson. One of the pellets struck Johnson on the ball of the left eye and another on his left hand. He was driven to the city and taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, a physician summoned, and the shot removed. Johnson will lose the sight of his eye.

Corwhin Ploughing Match

The Corwhin ploughing match was held on Thursday November 5th on the farms of Messrs. James and John Simpson, Nassagaweya, and Mr. John McKenzie, Puslinch. The attendance was not so large as last year, no doubt on account of the threatening state of the weather, the mist being so dense that it was with great difficulty that the plowmen got their stakes set. The crowd kept gathering until 2:00 o'clock when the rain came down so heavily that very few but the plowmen remained on the field. However, about 3:30 o'clock the sun shone forth for the rest of the afternoon. The spectators, who had taken refuge at Mr. Simpson's, returned to see who were the prize winners.

The Corwhin News January 6th 1897.

On Wednesday night, December 23rd, Mrs. Campbell, of the Corwhin Post Office, was awakened from her sleep by a noise, which she supposed came from the stable. To satisfy herself, she got up to go out to the stable to see everything was all right, but she found that the object making the noise was just outside the door. She returned and roused Mr. Campbell, to investigate. He went out and found a man, that far gone with drink and cold as to be unable to call or knock at the door. With the assistance of Mrs. Campbell, he was dragged to the lounge where he fell as limp as a rag. With difficulty, his overcoat was got off. Then they proceeded to take off his shoes, which were frozen to his socks. When they succeeded in getting off his socks, they found his two large toes frozen hard and solid. They worked at him for two hours before they got him restored to his normal condition. The man had been in Guelph, and got intoxicated, and besides what he carried inside, was loaded with a pocket pistol outside. The night was bitterly cold, in fact, one of the coldest that we have had this winter. If Mrs. Campbell did not happen to hear the noise that he made falling on the platform at the door, he would likely have been frozen stiff in a short time. The first basin of snow that she took in, he raised up, put his two hands into it, clutched almost the whole of it, pushed it into his mouth and ate it greedily. In a few minutes more, he asked for water. Mrs. Campbell brought him a dipperful, which held over a quart. He literally poured it down. In a few minutes more he asked for another one, and he did the same with it. Shortly after, he asked for a third, but they only gave him half the quantity, which he also greedily drank. He was sobered up in the morning, and promised amendment, but it only lasted four days, when he was at the old trade again, this time celebrating in Campbellville.

On December 30th, the residence of Neil Campbell was the scene of bustle and merriment, it being the occasion of the marriage of his daughter, Jessie, to Neil Campbell, of Lucknow. The marriage ceremony was performed in their commodious dining room, which was draped with wreaths of evergreens, interlaced with roses. The ceremony was performed by Reverend A. Blair, in the presence of only the immediate relations. The bride was assisted by her cousin, Miss M. Doyle, and the groom, by his brother, Alex. When the shades of night began to fall, the youth and beauty for miles around came pouring in, till their dwelling was full in almost every corner. The dining room was cleared, and those wishing to engage in the pastime of tripping the light fantastic, to the enlivening strains of B. McQuillan's violin, got the opportunity of doing so, and those who preferred a quieter amusement, engaged in games. Still another apartment was dedicated to a young student, who made a considerable study of palmistry. He amused and entertained quite a number of the fair sex, reading their hands. They seemed to relish the sport as well as any of the others. The wedding dinner was all that an epicure could desire. The presents were numerous and useful. The young couple are going to move to their new home. The bride says that it takes a good deal of nerve today to get the license. I think that the ladies would be capable of giving an intelligent vote, when they go through the ordeal of helping to get a marriage license. May they live long and happily together.

Mr. Jacob Wright had a family reunion on Christmas, some of the family members coming all the way from Maple Creek, North West Territories, and some from Marine City, Michigan. He had the proud satisfaction of having all of his family gathered together, once more, around the festive board.

Concert in S. S. No. 10, Puslinch
June 21st 1897.

A grand concert, given in the interest of the Guelph General Hospital, was held Friday night in the schoolhouse of No. 10 Section, Puslinch. The attendance was large and enthusiastic and the programme lengthy and excellent. Dr. Stirton, of Guelph, occupied the chair and made a short opening address, congratulating the people of Puslinch upon their public spirit in endeavouring to assist the hospital in the good work that it is performing. He gave a short history of the hospital, starting in 1874 with about 30 patients, and now treating nearly 600 per year, and commending the institution to the hearty support and sympathy to the people of the County of Wellington.

The programme, which was an excellent one, consisted of instrumental and vocal music, recitations, dialogues, Highland dancing, and a good speech by Mr. Alex Stewart, of Guelph. The performers were Miss Weatherston, of Everton, who gave some excellent recitations, solos by Miss Ross, Miss Morlock, Miss McKenzie, and Mr. Morlock, Highland dance by Miss Allan, of Mount Forest, recitation by Master Willie Gilbertson, instrumental by Mr. Onesto, Mrs. Allan, of Mount Forest, and Mr. McCaig, and duet by Miss Nicol and Mr. Jelly. A very nicely performed dialogue was also given and several quartets.

At the close of the entertainment, Mr. Cockburn, in a neat speech, seconded by Mr. McKenzie, moved a hearty vote of thanks to those who had taken part. The proceeds amounted to $22, which will be transmitted to the hospital.

“The Hills” of Puslinch – an explanatory note

In 1906, Mr. W. H. McKenzie undertook a very large literary task, a historical review of Wellington County, dating back to its settlement, which was published in segments in the Guelph Mercury newspaper over an extended period of time, and which has become a landmark historical work. In his endeavour, Mr. McKenzie solicited and received contributions from many people who were particularly knowledgeable on specific sections of the county.

In the Guelph Mercury newspaper for February 26th 1907, Mr. William Woods, of Rockwood, provided an invaluable unique perspective on Farnham Plains, and even more so, on an adjacent section of Puslinch Township that was known as “The Hills”. “The Hills” residents participated substantially in the social life of both Arkell and Corwhin and were frequently and affectionately mentioned in the newspaper columns of both communities. Mr. Woods’ sage commentary, strikingly well written, is as follows:

“About one mile from the village of Arkell, in a north-easterly direction, a ridge of elevated land crosses the 9th and 10th Concessions, which had acquired the name of “The Hills”, in contradistinction to the lower and more level land of the “Puslinch Plains”. A short time after the settlement of “The Plains”, a small colony of hardy pioneers from the county of Northumberland and the neighbouring counties of Scotland settled upon “The Hills”. Their names were Thomas Hume, Adam Hume, and William Hume, brothers, and Craistor Johnson, Duncan Gilchrist, Wm. Scott, Wm. Wakefield, and others, at a later date.

The natural features in this section must, of necessity, have called for greater physical exertions on the part of the settler than in its immediate neighbourhood. In addition to the removal of the forest, there were large blocks of various kinds of stone scattered over its surface. Inheriting the pugnacity and determination of the Briton, those obstacles were at length removed, and, at a later time, became valuable as material for the erection of their dwellings et cetera. As a compensation for the extra labour in clearing, the soil proved to be rich and deep and excellent for wheat and other crops.

Thus, within the space of time allotted to man, has the face of nature been subdued, in accordance with the divine commandment laid upon man at the beginning. All of these old pioneers have now passed away from the scene of their labours, and the place thereof knows them no more, and a younger generation is enjoying the fruits of their labour. Such are the changing scenes of that which we call life.”

The ploughing match, open to Puslinch and Nassagaweya, took place on Friday, the 5th instant, at Corwhin, under very favourable auspices, on the farms of Messrs. McKenzie and McFarlane. The weather was all that could be desired and the land in splendid condition. There was a good attendance, including quite a number from Guelph. Although the entries were not so numerous as might have been expected, the plowing in all classes was of superior quality, especially the boys, which had not only more entries than in the men's class, but also they did their work in a manner reflecting great credit and which brought forth the highest praise from all present. Tea Meeting at Corwhin

The anniversary tea meeting of the Corwhin Methodist Church took place on January 5th and was a great success. The sleighing being good and the weather mild made it so that a great many turned out to this pleasant gathering.

The chair was occupied by Mr. John Marshall of Nassagaweya, who ably filled the position. The services of the Acton orchestra were very much appreciated and their selections suited very well for the occasion. The first part of the programme was furnished by the S.S. (School Section) scholars and consisted of singing, recitations, and dialogues, and those present could not fail to admire the way in which the little people did their part.

Refreshments were then served, after which Mr. H. P. Moore of Acton gave an excellent, illustrated address to the children, dwelling principally on a summary of the book of Acts. Professor Dean of the O.A.C. then gave an address on "Success in Life" which held out many good points to young people. Reverend George R. Kitching of North Bay also spoke and gave a solo entitled "There is Glory in My Soul", which was much uplifting. Reverend Dr. Scanlon spoke briefly, in his lively way, using some of his drawings to make his thoughts easy to remember. The tired hearers then returned home, having much enjoyed the good things of Corwhin.

School Section No. 10, Puslinch
Had Very Successful Christmas Tree Entertainment
December 21st 1905.

The annual Christmas tree entertainment in connection with the Puslinch No. 10 Sabbath School was held in the school room on Friday evening, 15th instant. The school was well filled by an attentive and appreciative audience. The chair was occupied by the Reverend Mr. Robertson, B.A., who filled the position in his usual happy manner.

Addresses were given by J. A. Cockburn, Superintendent of the school, and by Reverends A. Blair, and Facey, of Nassagaweya. Readings, etc., were given by Mr. John Strachan, of Guelph; several duets were rendered by Mr. W. Grindley, of Guelph, and Miss C. McKenzie, of Corwhin, Miss Greta Robertson playing the accompaniments. A dialogue was given by Masters Irving and Cockburn, an instrumental by Messrs. Hume, Black, Murray, and Gilmour, and a recitation by Master Arnold Irving. Miss Mae Dickieson, of Toronto, guitar soloist and soprano, rendered a number of fine selections and received enthusiastic encores each time.

At a recess, about the middle of the programme, an excellent tea was served, which was much enjoyed. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a general assembly's diploma, neatly framed, to Miss Lillian Walker, which she had earned by repeating, at one sitting, without mistake, 200 Scripture passages.

The singing of the National Anthem by the audience and the benediction by the pastor brought to a close a very successful entertainment, after which, the tree was unloaded of the many presents to the Sunday School scholars and others.

Corwhin Social

The social held in the Corwhin Methodist Church last night was perhaps the best ever held there. The church was crowded to the doors and $53.50 was the amount taken in. Reverend R. A. Facey, B.A., pastor, occupied the chair. The speakers were Reverend Mr. Robertson, of Morriston, and the Reverend Mr. Lounds, from Rockwood. The music was furnished by the Guelph male quartet, R. J. Stewart, John Strachan, R. Grierson, and R. H. Brydon, with Bert McLean as accompanist. The quartet gave encore after encore, testifying to the audience's appreciation. Miss Calvert and Mr. John Strachan gave recitations. The tea was of the best and was greatly enjoyed.

A Successful Function in S.S. No. 10, Puslinch

The Public School concert in No. 10, Puslinch, which was held last Friday evening, was a decided success. The evening being fine, the school was well filled by an attentive and appreciative audience. Much of the credit for the success of the entertainment is due to Miss H. Barclay for her painstaking efforts in preparing the pupils for the parts that they were called upon to undertake. The recitations were all good, as also the dialogues, especially the ones entitled "Pat Hayseed in the City" and "The Census Taker". In fact, all of the parts contributed by the pupils were much appreciated. Mingled with the parts supplied by the pupils were instrumentals by the Murray Brothers and J. Black, songs by Miss McKenzie and Mr. McDonald, of Guelph, addresses spicy and practical by Reverend Mr. Blair and Prof. Dean, club swinging by Mr. Hohenadel, and a Scotch reading by Mr. Gilbertson. Mr. Swayzie, of Guelph, with his excellent gramophone, contributed generously towards entertaining the audience. Mr. W. F. McKenzie ably filled the chair and kept the programme going from shortly after eight until after 11. At that time, little better than two-thirds of the programme was finished, but the chairman thought that it was time to retire, and after the usual votes of thanks, the meeting was closed. The major part of the proceeds is to be used in securing wall pictures, etc., for the school room.

On September 28th, between 70 and 80 of the friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright assembled at their home to present them with a tangible token of their esteem. Scotch songs were given by Master John Dick, and Mr. Gilbertson gave a couple of Scotch recitations. Mr. Wright will be much missed in the Methodist Church, as he was choir leader for some time. The address was as follows:

To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright:

We, your friends and neighbours, have assembled here tonight to ask you to partake of our hospitality, as you have often had us partake of yours. On learning that you are about to leave our neighbourhood, we think that it is only right that we should show you in some tangible manner our appreciation of you and your amiable partner. We ask you, Mr. Wright, to accept this secretary, and you, Mrs. Wright, this tea set and sugar bowl, and when you look at them, when separated from us, they may remind you of the friends left behind, and may the God of all love guide and protect you through the remaining journey of life and at last bring us all safe to the haven of rest.

Presentation to Badenoch Organist

A very pleasing event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McIntyre, Nassagaweya, where the scholars and friends of the Badenoch Sabbath School gathered together to show their appreciation of the services rendered by Mrs. McIntyre, as organist for the past twelve years. After all had gathered, the Superintendent, Mr. J. W. Kerr, asked Mrs. McIntyre to come forward, while Miss Agnes Elliott read the following address.

Dear Annie:

It was with feelings of deep regret that we learned of your intention of withdrawing from our midst. We had come to regard your services as being indispensable in our sabbath School. For so many years as organist and lately also as a teacher, you have made yourself a place which will be decidedly difficult to fill. Even though the roads were bad or the weather inclement, with any likelihood of a meeting at all, we always felt sure of the organist being there.

In matters of business or wherever work was to be done, you have shown executive ability of a high order, which has often been of great assistance to us, and which we have fully appreciated, and better still, it was always given cheerfully, and without stint.

In the care of your class also, you have followed your usual fidelity to duty, which has characterized all of your work among us.

We feel sure, however, that what is our loss will be a gain for some others, and we congratulate Mr. McIntyre on his choice of a helpmate for the journey of life, which we trust will be pleasant and happy for you both, and successful in the highest sense of the term.

Since realizing our loss, we have felt compelled to give our feelings toward you some tangible expression, and so we would ask you to accept this token of our esteem and hope that it may remind you of the many joyous days spent in Badenoch, and we trust that you may be long spared to enjoy its use. And in all the ups and downs of your lot in life, we pray that One may be your lot, we pray that One may be your Captain, even Christ, for He will lead you safely into that desired haven.

At the proper time, Mr. Donald Simpson presented Mrs. McIntyre with a handsome cabinet of silver, after which she replied in suitable words, thanking them for their kindness. Mr. McIntyre also replied, thanking the school for its kindness shown to his wife and bade them all welcome to their home for the rest of the evening, and always.

Complimentary addresses were then tendered by the Superintendent, by Mr. M. Revell, by Mr. D. G. Hanning, and by others, after which lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in the good old Badenoch way. The gathering broke up in the "wee sma oors" by singing "Auld Lang Syne".

On Thursday, 22nd instant, the Badenoch Bible Class held its fortnightly social evening. The chief item on the program was a very spirited debate, "Resolved, that Western Canada offers greater inducements than Eastern Canada". The affirmative argument was maintained by Messrs. John G. McLean and Peter McLean, while Messrs. Alex McLean, Jr., and Donald Simpson supported the negative. As some of the speakers had considerable experience in New Ontario, as well as in Western Canada, they imparted much interest to the discussion. The debate was most interesting and instructive, and the contest close, as witnessed by the fact that the judges took 45 minutes consideration before giving out their decision. The negative proved victors by the narrow of two points. The speakers are to be congratulated on their able showing, as their arguments were ably and logically presented. After the debate, a short program of music and recitations followed, which was very well rendered.

Kearns, of Detroit, was solemnized at four o’ clock, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mr. J. Hockin, of Guelph. The bridal party, which was unattended, took its place before an arch of evergreens, white asters, and coleus, from the centre of which the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes were unfurled. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Dr. Blair, of Nassagaweya. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of white messeline silk with tunic of shadow lace and pearl ornaments and wearing a veil of silk chiffon, caught in mob cap effect. She carried a bouquet of carnations and fern. During the signing of the register, Miss McKenzie sang “Love’s Old Sweet Song” very sweetly. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens, asters, the colour scheme of pink and white predominating. The wedding presents were numerous and costly. The wedding dejeuner was served in the spacious dining room to about fifty guests. The bridal couple left on the eight o’ clock train, amid showers of confetti, for Montreal, the bride travelling in a tailored suit of navy serge, with hat of Belgium blue plush. Guests were present from Hamilton, Toronto, Detroit, Guelph, Teeswater, and Rockwood. Returning from their honeymoon, they will be at home to their friends at 902 Michigan Avenue, Detroit.

Annual Picnic of School Section No. 10, Puslinch
July 10th 1929.

The annual picnic of S.S. No. 10, Puslinch, was held on Saturday afternoon, June 29th, on the school grounds, with the usual large number of children and parents present. During the afternoon, the teacher, Miss Weatherall, presented the prizes to her pupils for the highest standing in each class, for attendance, and for a special conduct contest. Those receiving prizes were as follows:

High standing in class: Senior IV — Ellen Little*, Junior IV — Marjorie Weir, Senior III — Ross Clugston*, Junior III — Eleanor Richardson, Senior II — Evelyn McPhee, Junior II — Lucy Middleton*, Class I — Barclay Stallibrass, Primer — Donald Miller.

Those names above that are marked with asterisks received prizes only because the highest in the class received another prize, and only one prize could be received by each child.

Attendance — The following neither missed a day nor were late during the whole term:

Senior IV — Mildred Laing, Senior III — Lloyd Laing, Junior III — John Laing, Senior II — Gordon Laing.

Special Conduct Contest: Junior IV — Duncan McFarlane, Senior IV — Jack Amos, Junior III — Fannie Weir, Junior II — Isabel Weir, Primer — Margaret Hardie.

After the prizes were distributed, the children showed their appreciation of their teacher's kindness by giving three hearty cheers.

The chairman, Mr. J. A. Cockburn, then called on Miss Weatherall to come forward, while the following address was read by Marjorie Weir:

Dear Miss Weatherall:

We, the pupils of S.S. No. 10, and our parents wish to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your work among us as teacher of our school.

We parents would like to thank you for the kindly interest that you have shown toward our children, especially toward the little ones, whose first impressions of school life mean so much, both to them and to us. Nor would we forget your faithfulness to your entrance classes, nor your generosity in the giving of presents and prizes, which have helped so much to inspire promptness, cleanliness, and a desire on the pupil's part to do his or her very best.

We pupils also wish to ask you to overlook our thoughtlessness that has, no doubt, often tested your patience, and to remember only all of the happy times spent as teacher and pupils. And so we ask you to accept this gift, and with it, our best wishes for success in your chosen line of work. That it may ever remind you of your friends at No. 10 is the single sincere wish of us all.

Signed on behalf of the pupils and their parents,
Mildred Laing, Jack Amos, Mrs. C. A. Miller...

Dear Annie and Harry:

On behalf of your immediate neighbours, we, in the spirit of good fellowship and of helpfulness, present you with these utensils. It is our hope that they will be useful to you and that they will make both the kitchen and the cook bright and pleasant, those cooked for, comfortable and cheerful. Let the old ivory colour remind you of the genuine desire to be helpful, of all the old neighbours, of those living on this farm, and let the green trimming remind you of the heartiness of the good wishes of all, for your health, happiness, and prosperity. May the occasions when we must weep with you be exceedingly few, and the occasions when we may rejoice with you be very, very many.

To Mr. D. C. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Robson and family:

Dear Friends:

Having heard a few days ago of your intended departure from our neighbourhood, we decided to gather here tonight to spend a few social hours with you.

Although we realize that it is for your advantage to make your home in the city, still, we regret very much to lose you. We are pleased that you are not going far from us and we still will be able to visit one another.

We have known you, Mr. Campbell, for a good number of years, and have found in you a good friend, a man of high ideals, ever ready to stand firm for what was right and for the good of the community. You are leaving behind you an example which is fitting for any youth today to follow. As a slight token of the esteem in which you are held, please accept this pen, and may it remind you of friends in School Section No. 10.

And to you, Mr. and Mrs. Robson, we wish to express our appreciation of your kindness toward us all. Your home was a convenient centre for many of our errands and you were ever ready to open it to our use. You were never too busy to do the thing, big or little, to help another along, and so we ask you and your family to accept this lamp as a slight remembrance of our life together.

That you may all enjoy health, happiness, and prosperity in your new home, and that you may have the best that life can give you is the wish of your old friends and neighbours from School Section No. 10, Puslinch.

Signed by,

Robert T. Amos, William Stallibrass, J. P. Kitching, Sheldon Trousdale, and John Moore

Campbell Family of Moffat Has Fine Longevity Record

March 9th 1950.

Evidence of a possible record in longevity in families was produced Tuesday by Angus Campbell, of Moffat, one of the members of the age-record holding group.

The family of seven children, four girls and three boys, sons and daughters of the late Neil Campbell and the former Ellen Clark, have an average of 74 years, Mr. Campbell stated. All except two of the children still reside in the Moffat area and one boy, Dougald, still farms the old family homestead where they were all born.

“Three of the girls are married, but the boys, two of whom are twins, managed to escape the bonds of wedlock,” said Angus. Ellen, the oldest at 80, married Archie Smith and now resides in Rockwood. Her husband died several years ago. Mary, the second oldest at 79, married Angus Martin and has remained in the Moffat area. Catherine, next in line, married William Clark and is now living at Pearson, Manitoba. She is 74 years of age. Maggie, the youngest at 68, is keeping house for her brother Dougald, near Moffat.

Angus and Peter, the twins, have now reached the ripe old age of 71 years, while brother Dougald is 76. Mr. Campbell did not know whether he could attribute their longevity to the fact that they never married or not. He did say that they had all worked hard all their lives.

A Moffat district woman was rushed to Guelph General Hospital on Monday night in a serious condition, following a train-car crash at a Corwhin level crossing. Mrs. Jessie DeGroot, of R.R. No. 1, Moffat, was taken to General Hospital with abrasions after the car in which she was driving was struck by “Sparky”, the CPR gas-electric passenger train. The car had been stalled on the tracks at Moffat when the train hit it. Mr. DeGroot made a frantic attempt to push the car from the tracks. The gas-electric engine received no damage, while the DeGroot car suffered $700 damage. The engine had to be pulled back before Mrs. DeGroot could be taken out of the smashed car.

Guelph Youths Find Injured Boy on Road Possibility of Hit-and-Run in Accident Near Corwhin October 1st 1954.

Believed to have been the victim of a hit-and-run driver, about 10:30 o'clock this morning, Neil James Nicholson, of Corwhin Station, was rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, in a serious condition. Police are also investigating the possibility that he may have fallen from his bike. He was found by three Guelph youths who were bicycling in the area this morning, as Guelph schools were closed for a teachers' convention. The three Guelph boys, Ross Couling, 15, of 130 York Road, Earl Forestell, 13, of 106 Toronto Street, and Paul Berberick, 12, of 157 Ontario Street, had one of their bicycles break down and had asked the Nicholson boy for the loan of a wrench, while on the County Road 67, between Aberfoyle and Corwhin. Five minutes later, they heard someone screaming down the road and racing to the scene, they found the Nicholson boy staggering along the road, with blood gushing from his face. They took him to his home, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wilkinson, of Corwhin Station, called a doctor and the Guelph detachment of the provincial police, and an ambulance was rushed to the scene to remove the injured boy to the hospital. The three boys told Provincial Constables Frank Petty and A. Twaddle that they saw a truck pass down the county road just prior to hearing the Nicholson boy scream for help.

Moffat District Farmer recovering from Shock
July 19th 1958.

Lloyd Campbell, Moffat area farmer, received extensive burns throughout his body from a 3,300-volt high tension wire, but today is looking forward to his release from hospital.

The accident, which happened when a pull wire on a gate flipped up and struck low hanging hydro lines, knocked Mr. Campbell to the ground. He received burns to his hands and through much of his body as the electricity passed through his body and out his right leg. Most of the injuries were internal. The ground was wet at the time, making the burns more severe.

His wife, who witnessed the accident, helped him as he staggered away. She called the family doctor and he was rushed to Guelph General Hospital for treatment. He has been making a recovery, which Mrs. Campbell terms "miraculous". The Campbells operate a dairy farm and the neighbours have been assisting Mrs. Campbell with the work on the farm since the accident. One Gustav Fortin has spent almost all of his holidays helping out. It is expected that Mr. Campbell will be out of the hospital some time next week.

Camp Corwhin Opens with Sunny Ceremony October 21st 1963.

With nostalgic memories, Mrs. Lila Tolton opened the new Camp Corwhin, for Guides and Brownies in this district, at a ceremony attended by friends of guiding and by parents of the girls. Mrs. Tolton, who has been Brown Owl for some 20 years at Knox Presbyterian Church, cut the ribbon to open the former school house that is now Camp Corwhin. She told of the beginning of guiding in this area when she was on the Y Committee and, having a daughter of her own, was asked to start a company. Mrs. Tolton reminisced about special events here, the visit of the King and Queen, the war years, and the trips to rallies. She entered the new camp building with her granddaughter, a Brownie, and her grandson, a Cub.

Mrs. D. Pentelow, president of the local association, was chairman for the afternoon and messages of congratulations were brought to the gathering. Mrs. J. Atkinson, division commissioner, Mrs. M. Soligo, district commissioner, Mrs. Fred Dixon, chairman of finance committee, Mrs. A. Speers, camp chairman, and Mrs. Bruce Connell, Galt area commissioner, welcomed the guests and thanked the many interested citizens who had made the camp possible.

A generous cheque was presented to Mrs. Dixon from the Optimist Club for the camp by Mr. Len Harrison, treasurer, Mr. Jack Diamond, president, and Mr. Gordon Kinsey, chairman of boys' work.

Greetings were brought by May Ralph Smith, Alfred Hales, Harry Worton, Clifton Kells, Jim McMillan, William Toner, and Donald Schwartz, chairman of area school board No. 1, the former owners of the school house.

Mr. Schwartz expressed delight that the school house was being used for children in an area other than academic. He commented on the excellent condition of the school, thanks to former school boards. The Guide Association will have to make no major alterations to the building for many years.

Generous Help Given for Camp Corwhin October 12th 1964.

Hello Brownies and Guides!

Camping is for fun. One reason camping is proving so popular in our division is our own Camp Corwhin, near Aberfoyle. Just a nice hiking distance from the city, eight miles, Camp Corwhin has barely been open a year, but is continually busy on weekends, and companies and packs even have to double up so that everyone can be accommodated.

Just over a year ago, Mrs. Dixon and her committee were vigorously campaigning for funds to purchase the camp, which is the old School Section 10 Puslinch School. Besides using it as a headquarters for hikes, there have been two group camps and three pack holidays during the past year. There is no limit to the number of times a pack or company may use the campsite, but reservations must be made with camp chairman, Mrs. A. T. Speers.

More Property:

The local association for Girl Guides purchased additional property where tents can be erected and leave the yard free for activities. This property has now been fenced, with our good neighbour, S. Van Koughnett, supervising the work and using his equipment. H. Cooper, of Rockwood, donated the fence posts.

The division extends its sincere thanks to all who have worked and so generously made donations for the convenience of those using the camp. Lovett Signs made us the identification Camp Corwhin sign. The Women's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church gave a six-burner electric range. Just think, no more blown fuses. Dr. and Mrs. J. Loudon donated a refrigerator. The boys of the Ontario Training School made lovely cupboards at cost price and Walker's Store supplied the countertop covering.

The camp has been heavily wired and four good used bell tents, as well as cooking equipment, have been bought. The shed at the back was roofed by Mr. and Mrs. H. Aldersley and their neighbours. The first and most important future project is cutting a door through the back of the building, as fire regulations require. Repairs must be made to several cracks in the stone and to the interior plaster, before it is painted. Two or three more tents are needed and a hedge planted along one side of the tenting section to give more privacy.

The division would like to say a special thank you to the wonderful neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. K. Ball, who have generously offered their assistance, use of the telephone, swimming pool, tools, ladder, etc.

This interesting information was given to the column by Mrs. Speers, the camp chairman, who concludes by saying: "I am sure that each Ranger, Guide, and Brownie will be extremely proud of this camp as she goes through life, remembering that she played a part in making the dream of our division's camp come true. Remember! The camp was bought for your use. It's oil heated, so use it after the snow flies too." When is your pack or company going to the camp, or have you already been there this fall? It is particularly beautiful in the autumn with so many trees around in their fall dress.
